

100 Ways to Love a Person with Dementia... and Love Yourself

Discuss a short article
 Put together a puzzle
 Read a book to a child
 Go for a drive
 Visit a museum
 Skype with the grand kids

Volunteer at an animal shelter

Take an online class

Learn a new skill

Sing a song

Feed the ducks

Look at a map and discuss

- a. Where (s)he has always wanted to go
- b. Facts about each state/country
- c. Where (s)he has traveled

Water the plants

Cut coupons

Tell jokes

Sort fabric scraps, nuts and bolts, coins or cards
 Visit your doctor regularly
 Visit your dentist regularly
 Allow others to help you
 Treat depression and anxiety
 Confide in a trusted friend
 Maintain your social relationships

Volunteer with a meaningful organization

Teach someone how to do something you enjoy

List all of the things you can in one minute:

- a. Animals
- b. Flowers
- c. States

Have the diagnosed person shred the junk mail
 Have the diagnosed person sweep the sidewalk
 Have the diagnosed person clean patio furniture
 Have a spelling bee
 Arrange scrabble letters into words
 Pitch pennies into a can

Get Artsy

Paint a birdhouse

Plant a pot of flowers

Arrange flowers

Ball yarn

Make a memory box

Wear your nice jewelry

Use a camera to take pictures

Make a string of bird food

Write a poem

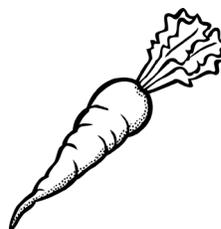

Scrapbook together

Have a paper airplane contest

Decorate store-bought cupcakes

Bake cookies
 Use the fancy dishes
 Make a cup of fancy coffee
 Meet friends for lunch
 Cook a nice dinner
 Eat a snack outside

Eat and Drink

Eat a healthy diet

Make smoothies

Make root beer floats

Dress up and have tea

Enjoy one glass of a nice wine

Pet a cat

Take a bath

Relax on the porch swing

Give a hand massage with scented lotion

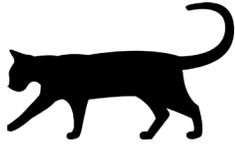

Look at family pictures

Do deep breathing

Feed the birds

Stop to smell the flowers

Get a pedicure

Attend a faith service

Rent a movie

Listen to quiet music

Watch kids at the park

Reminisce about

- Favorite places to travel
- Sports (s)he played as a child
- When (s)he met his/her spouse
- The best part about raising kids
- Why did you choose the career you did
- What was your favorite meal growing up

Rock on a swing or rocking chair

Diffuse essential oils

Look through picture magazines

Connect with your spiritual side

Get a good night's sleep

Look at travel magazines

Dance to a favorite song

Do Tai Chi

Walk the mall

Swim in a therapeutic pool

Join an exercise group

Join a community garden and plant vegetables

Walk around a farmer's market

Walk around the block

Go to a swap meet

Do chair yoga

Throw a ball to the dog

Play hangman

Play dominos

Play Uno

Toss a bean bag

Play name that tune

Play balloon badminton

Shoot a basketball (use a pool basket inside!)

Work on a crossword puzzle together

Putt a golf ball (in your living room from a chair!)

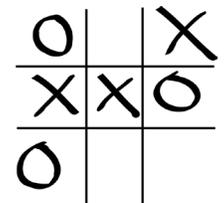

Bowl (even with water bottles in your living room!)

Play tic-tac-toe with beanbags

Play hangman

Play cards

Play checkers

Forgive Yourself if You Can't Do It All!