CYPRESS HOMECARE SOLUTIONS WELCOMES CHRIS WILLIS, MSW TO TEAM

Willis Brings Social Work Background to the Top Home Care Agency in Arizona

PHOENIX (August 7, 2012) – Cypress HomeCare Solutions announced today the addition of Chris Willis, MSW, as Client Services Representative. In this role, Willis will be connecting with clients and family members to find the best solutions that meet their needs. She will also work within the community to promote and support the Cypress mission.

“We are honored to have someone of Chris’ experience and many talents on our team,” said Bob Roth, managing partner. “Chris has an amazing ability to connect with others, making them feel at ease. Her experiences, education and energy will further enhance the quality of work we do in our community.”

Willis brings over 20 years experience in the healthcare field as a social worker, marketer, educator and leader. Prior to joining Cypress, Willis spent 12 years with Hospice of Arizona, most recently in the role of Director of Palliative Care Services. In the community, Willis has acted as President of the Human Services Professional Association – Phoenix Scottsdale and as Education Committee Co-Chair for the Arizona Assisted Living Federation of America. Her experience as a social worker has afforded her speaking engagements at senior communities, universities, conferences and family support groups.

With Willis, Cypress adds a dynamic and passionate individual, well-versed in the elder community and ready to guide aging adults and their families to the right resources.
